Anne,

Thanks for the e-mail. You are correct. The final realized costs report for project #12-048- The Admiral at the Lake is due on September 30, 2013. I will have Don place this e-mail in the project file as confirmation of your question.

Thanks.

Alexis,

I apologize as I know we have discussed this before. But with the new rules, I want to confirm the deadline for the Admiral to submit its final cost report is September 30, 2013, notwithstanding the fact the notice of project completion was submitted on May 6, 2013. The Admiral wants to make sure the final cost report is not due on August 4, 2013 (90 days after filing its notice of project completion).

Thanks.

Anne
