Mike-

The physical change to the project is the reduction from two stories to one, which reduces the square footage from 34,800 sf to 18,000sf. The cost is anticipated to drop from $14,974,094 to $12M. Physicians office space will be reduced, and the conference and administrative spaces included in the project will be eliminated.

Please let me know if you need any additional information.

Thanks.

Jack
